

LITERATURE AWARDS BANQUET

For over two decades, APALA has presented the Asian Pacific American Award for Literature.

This nationally recognized award honors and recognizes individual work about Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, Pacific Islanders and their heritage, based on literary and artistic merit.

We honor winners and honorable mentions in five categories. Our Literature Awards list is referenced in classrooms and libraries all over the country and many of our authors are bestsellers.

SPONSOR A STUDENT $85

Sponsor a student to attend the APALA Literature Awards Banquet.

Award winners and honorees are formally presented with their awards during the annual banquet with press releases sent out to national publishers.

With costs increasing, APALA seeks sponsors to ensure we are able to keep tickets under $85. We are also looking to support more programs focused on APALA student members, Emerging Leaders, and Spectrum Scholars.

Your sponsorship will directly support APALA's work in lifting up and giving back to our community.

ABOUT

APALA is a nonprofit organization dedicated to enhancing leadership opportunities through informed dialogue that addresses the needs of Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander library workers and those who serve these communities.

We fund library research grants, provide scholarships for AANHPI student education, and award travel grants so AANHPI librarians can access professional development.

Our literacy outreach programs reach hundreds of Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander and American Indian/Alaska Native families every year: we celebrate and explore their stories through books, oral traditions, and art to provide an interactive, enriching experience.
